

Name _____ Date _____ Hour _____

Chapter 1.E Vocabulary Quiz

1. The _____ is the part of Earth that includes the top portion of Earth's crust, all the waters that cover Earth's surface, and the atmosphere that surrounds Earth.
2. A symbiotic relationship in which both species benefit is called _____.
3. A(n) _____ is all the populations of all species living in an ecosystem.
4. A(n) _____ is anything that restricts the number of individuals in a population.
5. A(n) _____ consists of all the organisms living in an area, as well as the nonliving parts of that environment.
6. Organisms that use an outside energy source like the Sun to make energy-rich molecules are called _____.
7. The place in which an organism lives is called _____.
8. _____ is the study of interactions that occur among organisms and their environments.
9. Any close relationship between species is called _____.
10. _____ is the largest number of individuals of one species that an ecosystem can support over time.
11. A symbiotic relationship in which one organism benefits but the other is harmed is called _____.
12. Organisms that cannot make their own energy-rich molecules are called _____.
13. An organism's _____ is its role in its environment—how it obtains food and shelter, finds a mate, cares for its young, and avoids danger.
14. A(n) _____ is made up of all organisms of the same species that live in an area at the same time.
15. A symbiotic relationship in which one organism benefits and the other is not affected is called _____.